Naval Station at Anacostia Makes Big Contribution to Parade Program.

The naval air station at, Anacostia busy today with preparations for for the city in connection with a fund. Members of the Marine Corps Ill jump in parachutes from naval paign and will break out flags of the Inited States and France. The de-cent will take about ten minutes from the height of approximately 10,000 feet.

To Follow Line of March. Two flying boats of the HF-3 type.

Additional reason, it is said, is the Treasury's desire to make of the soldiers' and sailors' insurance a demonstration that government life insurance is successful and can be extracted.

Filers Who Guide Planes.

The filers who will guide the two planes are Lieut. I. W. Connelly, Lieut. J. G. Havens, Ensign G. A. Ott and Ensign Philip Allen, jr. It is possible that photographers will also be taken up to take views-of-the city. The flying boats will have to maneuver at a greater altitude than do Army planes because in case of injury they must glide to water.

The Anacostia naval air station was humming with excitement and activity, due to the fact that a number of the commissioned and enlisted personnel were preparing to celebrate Thanksgiving. In addition to all the extra work entailed by this afternoon's demonstration the regular activities of the post were undiminished, the daily mail boat for Hampton roads having departed at 1 p.m. and another having left that port for Washington simultaneously. Man Accused of Killing Eva Roy Says He Didn't Even See Body of Girl.

FAIRFAX COUNTY COURTHOUSE, Nevember 27.-Failure of the commenwealth's attorney to shake the gray paint used by the American Navy. stery of the prisoner in cross-examination and the temporary adjournment of the court to allow time for the summoning and production of a material witness by the defendant's counsel featured this morning's session in the trial of Lou Hall, charged with the murder of Eva Roy on last August 6.

A boomerang was thrown in the court, when, after the cross-examination of Hall, which was much shorter than anticipated, Attorney Walter Oliver, counsel for Hall, declared to the court that he had summoned as a witness a woman who lived, near the scene of the murder. No mention was made of the woman's name, but court was adjourned until this afternoon when she will be put on the stand. It is eaid that her testimony will weaken the government's case against Hall.

Cross-Examination Is Short.

When Hall was placed on the stand the audience expected a long-drawn-eut cross-examination, but this con-jecture was put to rout when Com-menwealth Attorney C. Vernon Ford declared after three-quarters of an hour's questioning that he was finished.

Hall said that he had not passed the scene of the crime on the morning of the murder, neither had he done so for a week prior to the killing. He asserted that he passed through the woods on his way home after two hours of wood chopping, but saw no-body. He denied that he went back and declared that he heard no screams. the linew nothing about the body, according to his testimony, hence, he said, he didn't move it to the tree.

Reverting back to the testimony senderning the teeth marks on the chin of the murdered girl, one juryman asked the privilege to examine the meuths of two or three persons in the churtroom to learn how their teeth differed from these of Hall. The court fered from those of Hall. The court ruled that this could not be done.

Quizzed as to "Third Degree." Sheriff Allison was called to the stand by Hall's counsel and questioned about the "third degree" methods said to have been used on Hall to wring a confession from him while he was in iail. It was claimed by the counsel for the defense that at 2 o'clock one morning a girl passed Hall's cell, a searchlight being played on her all the while.

The Sheriff, when cross-examined, said that bloodhounds had been used but they were unable to accomplish anything after Hall's ax and shirt had been used for the scents. The sheriff also said that Hall made no attempt to escape when arrested.

BOOKED TOMORROW

Service Teams Predominate in Contests on Local Fields. G. U. and State Away.

Three foot ball games are to be played here tomorrow. Catholic University is the only collegiate eleven scheduled to take part in the contests, the other five teams represent ing service organizations. The Brooklanders meet the Chemical Warfare Service on Georgetown Field for the second time this season, the former having won the first game. The other two struggles are listed for the service league, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. The serv ice games will be at American League

In the morning the Seaman Gunners are to meet the eleven representing the Army Medical School However, it is in the afternoon fray that the real struggle is likely to be seen. The 10th Regiment of Marines from Indian Head is slated to face the Navy Yard combination. The latter was heralded as the strongest in the league until the Indian Head men made their appearance against Camp Army eleven, and possesses several stellar players in their line-up.

Georgetown has put in two hard days of work in preparation for its game with Fordham in New York tomorrow. The Blue and Gray men reported Monday after their contest with League Island Navy Yard in pretty good shape and Coach John O'Reilly thinks they will be fit to give Fordham the battle of the season for both teams. The Hilltoppers leave here this afternoon and expect son for both teams. The Hilloppers leave here this afternoon and expect to arrive in New York early this evening. Flavin will go back to his position at quarterback in place of Hampton, who only recently returnd from training camp.

Maryland State's eleven, studen Maryland State's eleven, student body, and about everybody connected with the college, will go to Baltimore tomorrow for the annual Thanksgiving day struggle with Hopkins. State will take its student band and the battalion of a few more than 500 students. Over in Baltimore opinion seems to be that Hopkins will have guite a few reasural over whet it seems to be that Hopkins will have quite a form reversal over what it showed last Saturday, when it lost to Western Maryland. Hopkins undoubtedly has splendid material for a foot ball team, but the men did not play well as a team. The backfield Mopkins has possesses wonderful potential possibilities and the linemen are big and strong. Hopkins has a team that, going at its best as a team, would give the best of elevens a real struggle.

Here is what Starr Matthews in the Baltimore Sun says in the preliminary part of his store this morning. "Realizing that she cannot win the Maryland collegiate championship because of the defeat administered by western Maryland, Hopkins has de-termined to spill the beans for Cur-ley Byrd's State eleven when they meet on Homewood gridiron tomor-row afternoon. The local varsity has the chance to cloud the title and exects to do it.

"Hopkins has not whined about the the students as well have but one idea in mind—spill the beans. Beat State' is the slogan of the Beat State' is the earnest request

"Beat State is the earnest request of the loyal supporters.
"Hopkins is going upon the field determined to beat State if such a thing is within her power. Everyone must admit that the Black and Blue was off color last Saturday, for while Western Maryland is not, and was not considered, easy prey, the Meth-odists shocked foot ball enthusiasts chew const sort of a defeat, and one wholly unexpected for Hopkins really was confident; she would win and even develop rapidly enough to lower the colors of the College Park aggregation."

State will use the same team against Hopkins that it placed in the game with Western Maryland and St. John's with the possible exception that Raedy may play right halfback in place of Gurevich. Raedy has not taken part in a contest since the one with Virginia Military Institute November 2, but now seems to be in good shape. It is probable that Raedy and Gurevich will alternate in the position.

CLEVELAND, November 27.—The foot ball game scheduled here for Thanksgiving day between the Cleveland Naval Reserve and the Camp Sherman team has been called off. Camp Sherman will play Camp Taylor instead.

Is Named to Corporate.

A committee to co-operate with the War Camp Community Service has been appointed by A. Leftwich Sinclair, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

The members are: Ernest H. Greenwood, chairman, and James T. Lloyd, Joseph A. Berberich, Merritt O. Chance, O. J. DeMoll, Isaac Gans, one of the regulars suffering injuries in the Michigan game Saturday.

M. Stoddard and A. Leftwich Sinclair.

Mest interesting of scholastic foot ball games, in fact, about the only interesting one, of the year is to take place this afternoon in the Central High-stadium between Central and Western. Much talk has gone back and forth between the two schools about a contest and each is banking on a victory to back its claim of having the stronger eleven. Western is heavier than Central, but the latter seems to be faster. However, the Red and White has one man in its backfield who is exceptionally speedy—Wight. That youngster is likely to make considerable trouble for Central's ends.

THREE GRID GAMES | HEYDLER IS FARSEEING CLAPP TWO STROKES SHY

Right Idea About Organized

NEW YORK, November 27 .- The way to start base ball housecleaning is for the National and American leagues to hold a joint session of two days or more and consider the various proposed reforms, John Heydler, acting president of the National League, said here today.

"There is altogether too much alcofleagues," Mr. Heydler said, in explaining his proposal. "It is all right to fight each other on the ball field during the playing season, but at other times there should be at least the ordinary business co-operation that exists in other competitive lines.

"To attempt to carry on a so-called reconstruction program."

A triple tie for a place in the first sixteen, among R. C. Steese of Youngstown, T. A. Cheatham of Pittsburgh and C. B. Hudson of North Fork, required the playing off of four holes before a decision was reached. Steese finally joined the elect at the fourth hole.

Sixty players took part in the first sixteen, among R. C. Steese of Youngstown, T. A. Cheatham of Pittsburgh and C. B. Hudson of North Fork, required the playing off of four holes before a decision was reached. Steese finally joined the elect at the fourth hole. "To attempt to carry on a so-called reconstruction program in base ball without the sincere aid of the sixteen club owners, as well as of authorized would result in absolute failure."

ERNIE SHORE MAY QUIT.

Red Sox Pitcher May Get Commission and Stick to Service.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., November 27 .-Ernie Shore, the elongated twirler of the Boston Red Sox, who has been studying in the officers' material school here for the commission of ensign, may be out of base ball the coming season. Shore, if everything goes well, will be recommended for his commission during the first week in December. The big pitcher says to play professional ball,
Jack Barry, manager of the 1917
Red Sox, may seek to be released from the school. Barry's class will graduate in February, but the big fellow, since he suffered from an aggravated case of water on the knee, has been forced to fall considerably behind in his studies.

Boxing Fans True to Baldwin. The fight fans of Boston have not forgotten Matty Baldwin, the famous ring gladiator, who started his career in a Hub ring and who recently fell a victim of the Spanish influenza epidemic. Several days ago a benefit boxing show was held for Matty's widow and the fans responded in large numbers. About $9,000 was realized. The amount is the largest that has ever been netted at a benefit that has ever been netted at a benefit show in Boston and compares favorably with the amount realized from the Tim Murnane benefit base ball game which was staged at Fenway Park more than a year ago. During the course of the Baldwin show two pictures of the fighter were auctioned off and netted $1,550.
